STATE REPRESENTATIVE

It is an honor to serve as your State Representative in Topeka. I look forward to listening to your ideas, leading on issues that matter to you, and leaving Kansas a better place.
~ Rep. Erin Davis

Welcome

Erin Davis Endorsed by "Quality Schools for All Kansas Kids" PAC

Olathe, KS (October 4, 2014) – Erin Davis has been endorsed by the "Quality Schools for All Kansas Kids PAC".

The endorsement was received in a letter from the PAC, which said:

"We are grateful for your strong support of education, particularly your votes this year for a $176 million increase in K-12 funding and more local control for the parents, teachers, and school boards who know their children best."

"In addition to keeping K-12 our state's number one budget priority, your focus on accountability and improving educational outcomes is much appreciated. All Kansas kids deserve quality schools, and none should be trapped in underperforming ones."

"With $5.9 billion in federal, state, and local funds now invested annually in Kansas K-12, your record demonstrates a deep commitment to both resources — and results — for Kansas kids."

Erin Davis Named as Part of "Right Women, Right Now" Project; District 15 One of 14 Races to Watch

Washington, D.C. (September 8, 2014) – The Republican State Leadership Committee's (RSLC) Future Majority Project and "Right Women, Right Now" initiative announced "14 in '14 Races to Watch" during the Republican Legislative Campaign Committee (RLCC) Northeast Regional Meeting in Pittsburgh, PA. District 15 in Kansas, occupied by Erin Davis, is listed as one of the races in the "Right Women, Right Now "14 in '14 Races to Watch".

Christine Toretti, RSLC Board Member and advisor to the Future Majority Project's "Right Women, Right Now" initiative, issued the following statement announcing the "Races to Watch:"

"It is critical we ensure our Party reflects the full diversity of America and the RSLC's Future Majority Project and "'Right Women, Right Now" initiative has been instrumental in guaranteeing that female and diverse Republican candidates are a part of the political conversation, both nationwide and at the state level," said Toretti. "I applaud the candidates recognized today in these 'Races to Watch' and thank them for leading the way to help us grow the Republican Party in their respective states." Read more...

Olathean Erin Davis Sworn-In, Receives Committee Assignments

Erin Davis sworn in by Kris Kobach

TOPEKA, Kan. (Jan. 31, 2014) – On Friday, Jan. 10, 2014, nearly life-long Olathean and current Olathe Planning Commission member, Erin Davis, was sworn in as state representative for 15th District by Kansas Secretary of State Kris Kobach. Immediately after being sworn in, Rep. Davis (R-Olathe), received her committee assignments from House Speaker Ray Merrick (R-Stillwell).

Rep. Davis is serving on the following House committees: Federal and State Affairs, Judiciary, Elections, and Local Government. Her office is in room 519-N of the newly renovated Statehouse.

"Olathe has been my hometown since 1978 and my family and I have made the 15th District our home for the past 11 years. I am fully invested in Olathe and look forward to the honor of serving my family, friends and neighbors of the 15th District. I welcome and encourage my constituents to visit my office in Topeka and to contact me with any issues or concerns they might have.” Rep. Davis can be contacted by email at erin.davis@house.ks.gov.

Rep. Davis was unanimously elected Jan. 2, 2014, by Republican precinct committee men and women of the 15th District. The election was held during a special convention that was called to fill the seat of former Rep. Bob Montgomery, who resigned the seat effective Dec. 31, 2013.
